him in 1919 when he returned from a year with the First Division in France.

He was the son of Matilda Miller and John Jay Bryant of Riverside, IL. The young Bryants made their home for 40 years in Waukesha, WI calling their home "Earl Hill" after the family home in Northern Ireland. The home is still raising Bryants today.

During the harsh winter of 1926, Henry Bryant suggested that his wife have the fourth of their five children in a warmer climate. He remembered visiting with his grandparents on the Mississippi Gulf Coast many years before. They rented a cottage on the beach in Pascagoula. Their son, Charles Brate Bryant, now of Hartland, WI, was born at the Old Biloxi Hospital, where Nurse Whitespunner was in charge.

Their older children were: Henry Bryant Jr., an honored artist of Montpellier, France; John Jay Bryant III, Glen Ellyn, III and Mardi Bryant Jones of Dallas, TX. The fifth child is Anthony Wayne Bryant of Waukesha. There are 16 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren in the Bryant family.

The Bryants fell in love with the Coast and bought property in Gulf Hills. The family traditionally spent part of each year here, until they moved permanently in 1959.

Hudis Leroy and Ruby Lee Hood Burgess

BURGESS, HUDIS LEROY AND RUBY LEE HOOD

In August 1943 Hudis Leroy Burgess came to Pascagoula and was employed by Ingalls Shipbuilding Corp. as a chipper to help the war effort. A short time later, Rudy Lee Hood Burgess followed him to the Coast along with two children; Donice Jeanette Burgess and Donald Edwin Burgess. They rented one of the government project apartments on 1407 12th Street. Soon after their arrival Rudy Lee contracted tuberculosis. She spent several years in treatment in Jackson County before going to Sanatorium, MS, where she spent six months. During that time Leroy, Donice, and Donald lived with his parents, Joseph Roland Burgess and Nettie Lora Vance Burgess, 1111 Faragut Street.

Leroy and Rudy Lee were from North Mississippi, where their families were some of the earliest settlers. Rudy Lee Hood Burgess was born Oct. 13, 1919 in Fulton. Her parents were John Hood, born April 11, 1885 who died April 15, 1935 and Margaret Maude Webb Vance Hood, born May 5, 1873 who died Jan. 3, 1960. She was the youngest child of the Hood family which numbered eighteen. The oldest son of the family (by a previous marriage) was named Robert Lee in honor of the Southern general, Robert E. Lee. When the youngest child was born, John Hood wanted her to carry those initials also, therefore, Rudy Lee is also named in honor of Robert E. Lee. In 1924 the family moved to Nettleton, MS, where John and Maude spent their remaining years. Leroy was born March 27, 1915 at Houlka, MS to Joseph Roland Burgess and Nettie Lora Vance Burgess. His early years he spent in farming and sawmill work. It took him several years to complete the eighth grade, because he had to help the family during severe economic depression. He joined the Civilian Conservation Corps in August 1934 and helped construct roads bridges and dams near Tupelo, MS. One weekend he went home with a buddy, Marshall Hood. There he met "the girl of my dreams." He and Rudy Lee were married Jan. 10, 1937 at Nettleton, MS. They had three children: Donice, Donald and Paul. Donice Jeanette Burgess, born in Nettleton, MS on Oct. 26, 1937; Donald Edwin Burgess was born in Houston, MS on Oct. 9, 1941, married Ellen Laws, born Feb. 17, 1940, Forrest City, AR on May 2, 1960. Their children are: Clarissa Leigh Burgess born Dec. 28, 1963, Memphis, TN; Kevin Roger Burgess, born Sept. 11, 1965, Memphis, TN and Donald Keith Burgess born March 26, 1967, Memphis, TN. Donald and Mary were divorced Oct. 31, 1985. Donald is employed with an oil company which serves three states. Clarissa is employed with a publishing company in Little Rock, AR. Kevin attends Hendrix College, Conway, AR. Keith is serving his country in the United States Navy. Paul Gordon Burgess was born in Pascagoula, MS on Feb. 14, 1948. He married Nancy Lee Chandler Stanley, born March 16, 1948, Kansas City, MO, in July 1965. To this marriage three children were born. Paul Brian Burgess was born April 3, 1966 in Memphis, TN, married Jackie Moncus Rogers Burgess, born Dec. 3, 1951 in LaGrange, GA, on Nov. 11, 1984. They had a son, John Brian Burgess, born July 1985, in LaGrange, GA. They were divorced March 1986. David Scott Burgess born Dec. 3, 1969, Memphis, TN; Amie Louise Burgess, born May 13, 1971, Memphis, TN. Paul and Nancy were divorced July 1973, Memphis, TN. Paul's second marriage was to Linda Jean Boren born July 21, 1945, Booneville, MS on Oct. 26, 1973. They had no children. Linda had two children by a previous marriage period. Reports coming from the various precints indicate that the heavy rains of Tuesday prevented any large gatherings at the voting places, and where meetings were held there was but a small attendance. It is quite probable that in some of the smaller precincts, where but one or two delegates were to be decied, the voters manifested no inverse in the matter and made no effort to hold meetings.

At the county convention next Tuesday delegates to the state convention of be held June 5 will be elected. Jackson county is entitled to three votes in the state convention, but the county-onvention may elect more delegates who can vote as a unit. Orleans College Resident Buys Pascagoula Home

Dr. Dinwiddie of Tulane University Will Establish Summer Residence
the Seashore.

A real estate transfer was recorded in the chancery clerk's office during the week which is of more than passing interest owing to the prominence of the parties to the transaction. It was put down on the record as Mrs. Lola Her-ring to A.B. Dinwiddle, which means not so much to the casual reader, but takes on more importance when it is learned that the purchaser of the prop is Dr. A. B. Dinwiddle, president of Tulane University at New Orleans. The property conveyed is the summer beach home of the late H. C. Herring; and has been purchased by the Tulane president from Mrs. Herring at a good price, and will be used by the New Orleans folks as a summer and winter vacation home. The property ad-joins the Farnsworth and Everitt homes on the beach, faces 68 feet on Gulf of Mexico and the wall and beach Boulevard, and extends back to Commerce Street, a distance of about 300 feet. A comfortable and attractive home occupies the lot.

Members of Prof. Dinwiddle's family have been making frequent visits to Pascagoula, spending holidays and week-ends visiting friends here or "camping" on the beach, and now that they have a home here where they are well pleased with the location, Pascagoula may expect them to spend much more of their time here and become welcome additions to the social life of

NEW BANQUET HALL HEARS LIONS ROAR

First Service Club Luncheon Held Tuesday in New Community House,

Lion Everitt Speaks.

Lions had the honor of being the first service club to have its luncheon in the new Community House, and the regular meeting Tuesday took on a gala aspect. The decorations and flowers used for the dedication program of the hight before were still in place, rainy weather made the lights necessary, there were several ladies in bright spring dresses present, giving a feative dash of color to the occasion.

Lion C. B. Harring introduced the guests of honor, Mr. John Magee, the noted singer. Miss Multel Carrier and Miss Theresa Johnson. Mr. Magee favored the company with several delightful songs, one of them being the "Last Rose of Summer," which aroused old memories and tender recollections.

Mr. Everitt made a very appropriate speech, telling his hearers some of the and downs of old Pascagoula and of how, notwithstanding many adverse periods, the city had kept on growing and that the spirit of progress and friendly co-operation-we xemplified present beautiful civic in which the Llons were then lunching the gr Mrs. H. TTI FEINTEREST INSTATIERATES

More of Extraordinary Semion

Than Politics

Jackson, Miss, May 14.—Mississipplans apparently have tired of politics and are turning their attention to other things for the time being. The lack of enthusiasm being shown in the appreaching presidential nominations the senatorial congressional and judicial primary elections, and the extraordic nary session of the state Legislature, scheduled for August or September, is causing no little apprehension on the part of the politicians.

The prolonged gubernatorial campaign followed by rour months of turbulent political activity during the recent session of the Legislature evidently has satisfied the appetite of voters for politics, and how to awaken interest in the "burning issues" of the sundry races is a thought that is keeping awake many of those aspiring for preference at the polis.

More discussion is given to the special session of the Legislature than to all of the election campaigns, and the talk of the lawmakers reconvening centers around the revenue problem more than anything else. The state printing plant preject comes next, and political observers see an attempt being made to inject the printing of textbooks into the senatorial campaign.

Opposing Forces Active.

The opposing forces are organizing stronger for the summer session of the Legislature than they are in the senatorial, congressional and judicial campaigns. Governor Bilbo has fired his opening gun in the form of letters to his workers in all counties of the state, outlining the program he will place before the Legislature and seeking assistance in directing public attention toward the program in an effort to arouse public sentiment favorable to the passage of the measures advocated.

These measures include the enactment of a revenue program in lieu of the House program vetoed by Governor Bilbo at the dast session, passage of the good roads bill, creation of a central purchasing agency, establishment of a bureau of publicity property financed and last but not least the creation of a state printing plant. The governor during the recent session favored the adoption of a general sales tax measure eventually to replace the ad valorem

A commission, composed of two Benate and two House members and four to be named by the governor, was created by the Legislature to study the tax problems and report back at the next session. So far the governor has not announced the personnel of this commission to be named by him.

Merchanta Open Campaign.

The Mississippi Merchants' Association has launched a campaign against the adoption of a general sales tax bill, which was defeated both in the House and Senate at the last session. Unexpected opposition has also broken out against the state printing plant.

Resolutions asking that action on the state printing plant be delayed until they could conduct a thorough investigation into the subject were adopted by the Mississippi Education Association as its state convention on the coast several weeks ago, and that organization has named a committee of educators to make an exhaustive inquiry into the question.

The Mississippi Press Association has opened up headquarters in Jackson to oppose the printing plant on the "business" side of the issue, it is announced.
